Hilliard Division of Police - Citizens Police Academy

The Hilliard Division of Police is excited to host the next Citizens Police Academy. The Academy is open to any adult who lives, works, or plays in the City of Hilliard. With fun interactive classes, the curriculum is designed to help citizens understand laws, arrest situations, traffic enforcement and much more. Classes are held on Tuesday evenings from 5:30 to 9:00 p.m.

Don't worry they won't have you running laps or taking tests. The class is FREE and one evening there is a special treat - Chief Francis will be cooking and hosting dinner for the class.

Class starts February 23, 2011 and applications must be in by February 18, 2011.

CONTACT: Officer Hyda L. Slone (614) 334-2321

Woman's Self Defense Courses

Most women seek information on how to stay safe and/or fight back and are not interested in spending four to six years studying a martial art in order to feel more secure. This course on Self Defense and State of Mind offered by the Hilliard Division of Police is a conscious, proactive approach to life.

The following is a list of the dates and times for 2011. You must attend both nights.

Feb. 21 & 22 (5PM – 9PM)
April 18 & 19 (5PM – 9PM)

This course provides 8 hours of teaching and hands-on training held on two nights. It is comprised of a series of both learned and inherent behavioral and cognitive options that you choose to work for you. A focus on prevention strategies and self-defense options is instructed by specially trained officers from the Hilliard Division of Police and has received outstanding reviews by young and old alike.

Bingo Anyone?

Every Wednesday evening starting on February 16th, the American Legion, 3998 Lattimer Street, will host Bingo. Time is to be determined. Come out for an evening of fun and friendship.
