Old Hilliard Historical Walking Tour

In honor of National Heritage and Tourism month, the Northwest Franklin County Historical Society has partnered with Destination Hilliard to plan a historical walking tour of downtown Hilliard slated for Saturday, May 7th. Event will take place rain or shine. Docents will guide groups of 10-15 individuals through downtown Hilliard giving the history of the buildings. At the end of the hour tour, attendees will receive a self-guided historical walking tour guide and souvenirs of Hilliard. Tours will depart every 15 minutes from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Tickets are $6.00 per individual or $12.00 for a family.

Spirit of Safety Day

Hilliard Police Department and Norwich Township Fire Department are hosting Spirit of Safety Day on Saturday, May 21, 2011 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Joint Safety Services Building located at 5181 Northwest Parkway. The event is free to the community. The event includes station tours, equipment and health/wellness displays, demonstrations including auto extrication, rope rappelling, EMS Skills and fire sprinkler, wellness checks including blood pressure and glucose, see the Medflight Helicopter and experience fatal vision activity. In addition, there will be all types of kids activities including firefighting simulators, safety house, bicycle rodeo, meet Brix from the Hilliard Police Department K-9 unit and other mascots. This is a great opportunity to educate your kids and family about the services provided by the Hilliard Police Department and Norwich Township Fire Department.

Bring any old or unused medications that need to be disposed of safely.
